8. COMMENTS FROM COMMITTEE MEMBERS

- Mike Behrens expressed his safety concerns on Clearwater and Sky View's drop-off and pick-up student areas. Shared the traffic concerns for the students and shared he has noticed Sky View's parking lot being used a lot as additional parking for Patriot Park on Murrieta Road.
Francine shared she's scheduled a meeting with City administrators and neighboring districts to network, share and communicate activities and concerns that impact schools. That during the meeting she would address the parking issue.
- Dave Santos requested that a flyer or a simply notice be sent to the community informing them of all facilities updates, on how much and where these projects have taken place. Expressed to update the website, for friendlier usage with accurate information. The district should considered other sources to communicate and educate the community of all changes and events.
Mike Behrens suggested to attend City meetings, to ask if the District can be placed on their agenda or inform under public speaking as a source of community communication. He also shared that channel 3 is the City's informational channel and a good source of communication.
